with new, delectable flavors from across the Lone Star State*

(DALLAS) – Norma's Cafe, the original Dallas dining icon serving Texas home cooking, will celebrate its 2nd Official Texas Chicken Fried Steak Day Friday, Oct. 26 at its two Dallas locations. This year's celebration will feature the tastes across the Lone Star State with a delicious "Tour of Texas."

"Norma's Cafe is excited to celebrate Texas and Dallas Chicken Fried Steak Day by introducing a delicious, new concept for our guests," said Ed Murph, owner of Norma's Cafe. "Our chicken fried steak has been an award-winning staple for more than 56 years, and while we prefer our chicken fried steak smothered with white, creamy gravy, we're offering our guests a flavorful twist on this classic dish with flavors from across the state this year."

This new, flavorful twist from Norma's Cafe is called the "Tour of Texas," which serves up its "eNORMAus," award-winning chicken fried steak – seasoned, double dipped and fried golden brown, now with five different tastes from across the Lone Star State:

- Norma's Cafe Classic – Chicken fried steak smothered in cream gravy and served with three veggies
- San Jacinto – Chicken fried steak covered with chili and sprinkled with cheddar cheese, jalapenos and onions, and served with three veggies
- Panhandle – Chicken fried steak topped with cream gravy, green chilies and Jack cheese, and served with three veggies
- Hill Country – Chicken fried steak lathered with barbecue sauce, tender brisket and red onions, and served with three veggies
- By the Border – Chicken fried steak enchilada, doused in white gravy and topped with Jack cheese and jalapenos, and served with border-style rice, refried beans and Pico de Gallo.

Norma's Cafe was recently voted "Best Chicken Fried Steak" in the 2012 Dallas Observer Readers' Choice Poll. To celebrate this accomplishment and the special day, Murph will host a chicken fried steak drawing where guests can enter to win chicken fried steak for a year from Norma's Cafe. Runner-up winners will receive a chicken fried steak party for six. In addition, guests who order chicken fried steak in either of the two locations on Friday, Oct. 26, will receive a free slice of Mile-High Cream Pie on their next visit.
