Norma's Cafe Owner Takes the Cake in Texas
Ed Murph Receives TRA State Award

DALLAS, TEXAS - The Texas Restaurant Association (TRA) awarded Ed Murph, owner of Norma's Cafe, with the annual Cornerstone Humanitarian Award, a state award honoring the Restaurant Neighbor Award program. The program was created by the National Restaurant Association to honor restaurants' commitment to community service and innovative community projects and to underscore that restaurants truly are the cornerstone of local communities.

Ed Murph and Norma's Cafe have played vital parts in the Dallas community, particularly Oak Cliff. As the owner of Norma's Cafe, his roots run deep in the community and he understands giving back is important. Murph is active in many civic groups and supports several non-profits including Susan G. Komen's 3-Day for the Cure, Dallas Big Brother Association, YMCA Summer Camps, North Texas Food Bank, and the Red Cross.

Giving back to his community with every possible opportunity, Murph has added a new philanthropic side to Norma's Café that compliments its down home, delicious comfort food. Whether it's a holiday toy drive, Veterans Day writing campaign or a Thanksgiving meal give-away Murph and Norma's Cafe give people a full stomach and a full heart.
