Dallas dining icon to feature customer-created recipe on award-winning breakfast menu

(DALLAS) – In celebration of National Egg Month throughout the month of May, Norma's Cafe held a month-long omelet contest at both of its Oak Cliff and North Dallas locations. Norma's Cafe "eggsperts" were given the opportunity to submit top omelet recipes online – a first for the 56-year-old restaurant.

The delicious, winning recipe was pot roast (certified Angus beef), brown gravy, jack cheese, bell pepper, carrots, red onion, spinach and potato. The first runner-up was a barbecue brisket and salsa omelet, and the second runner-up was an omelet made of bacon, chicken tenders and sausage gravy.

"We have the best breakfast in Dallas and our omelets are a big part of our breakfast menu," said Ed Murph, owner of Norma's Cafe. "We love giving our loyal guests the chance to be the cook with our Texas-style home cooking. By holding this contest online, we received a much larger sample from across North Texas. I'm looking forward to hearing the feedback on these winning omelets next month."

The winning recipe will be a Norma's Cafe featured item on its award-winning breakfast menu for the month of June and win a free omelet party for eight. The runners-up will receive Norma's Cafe "pie of the month" honors, which mean a free Mile-High Cream Pie™ for the next three months.
