Norma's Cafe, Special Olympics Partner for Tip-A-Cop Event

Portion of restaurant sales to support organization

(DALLAS) – Norma's Cafe, the original Dallas dining icon serving Texas-style home cooking, will team up with Special Olympics Texas on Tuesday, May 20 for the Law Enforcement Torch Run's Tip-A-Cop, an event where law enforcement agency officers serve Norma's Cafe customers and raise awareness of Special Olympics Texas. The event will take place from 7:30 a.m. – 1 p.m. and a portion of the day's sales from all three Norma's Cafe locations will benefit Special Olympics Texas.

Guests who want to support Special Olympics Texas are invited to dine at either of the three locations, where law enforcement officials and Special Olympic athletes will be collecting donations and selling merchandise to support the organization, as well as educating the community on the programs Special Olympics Texas provides. Norma's Cafe will also donate a portion of the day's total sales. Special Olympics Texas provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities. Funds raised at this event will support the various athletic programs within the organization.

"Charitable giving is at the forefront of everything we do, and we are excited to partner with Special Olympics Texas and help bring awareness to such a great organization," said Ed Murph, owner of Norma's Cafe. "This is the first fundraiser we've held with Special Olympics Texas. We're thrilled to create this new partnership and continue our long-term partnership with law enforcement officers."

The Law Enforcement Torch Run is the largest grassroots fundraiser for Special Olympics across the world. The organization began its partnership with law enforcement officials in 1981. The Texas Law Enforcement Torch Run began in 1985.

"We appreciate the support that Norma's Cafe is providing to Special Olympics Texas and look forward to participating in many more events with them," said Margaret Larsen, president and CEO of Special Olympics Texas.

About Norma's Cafe

Norma's Cafe is a Dallas home cooking institution. Founded in 1956, Norma's Cafe serves up hot, fresh, and savory home-style meals, with a sinful Texan flare, which are sure to make your mouth water. The original location has been operating in Oak Cliff for more than 50 years. Norma's Cafe has two newer locations located in North Dallas and Frisco. Norma's Cafe is the rare type of cafe that one can stop by for a cup of freshly brewed coffee or a full-on family meal and leave equally satisfied. Norma's Cafe staples include big breakfasts, characterized by fluffy biscuits and gravy, satisfying dinners with award-winning chicken fried steak, and homemade, Mile-High Cream Pies™ for dessert. Norma's Cafe is the one, the only, the original.
