Norma's Cafe Sponsored 2nd Annual Chicken Fried Steak Bus Tour

Donations directly benefitted the North Texas Food Bank

(DALLAS) – On Wednesday, Oct. 26, Dallas' comfort food icon, Norma's Cafe, celebrated the 6th annual Texas Chicken Fried Steak Day, a Texas-born holiday that was initiated six years ago by owner of Norma's Cafe, Ed Murph.

Several East Texas restaurants that are acknowledged for their delicious chicken fried steak partnered together on the second Texas Chicken Fried Steak Day bus tour. A variety of sponsors across the Metroplex donated for a spot on the bus, which will directly benefit the North Texas Food Bank (NTFB). The fundraising amount has already surpassed the $11,000 goal in pledges, which will supply approximately 33,000 meals to North Texans. Through last year's bus tour, Norma's Cafe, sponsors and guests donated almost $11,000 to the NTFB.

Additionally, for the first time, Norma's Cafe opened up the bus tour to the general public through a Facebook promotion giveaway. One lucky guest, and a friend of their choosing, won two seats on the bus for themselves ($1,000 value) and enjoyed a day full of chicken fried steak.

"The Food Bank is proud to partner with Norma's Cafe, they truly are a Dallas institution," said Simon Powell, Chief Operating Officer, Interim President and CEO for the NTFB. "For us, Texas Chicken Fried Steak Day means that we will be able to put food on the table for food insecure seniors, children and families across our service area. On behalf of all of those that we serve, thank you for your support. "

The bus tour kicked off at Norma's Cafe's newest location, Park Lane and made stops at the following restaurants:

- Alfredo's Steakhouse – Forney, TX
- Ole West Bean and Burger – Canton, TX
- Terrell Steak and Grill Restaurant – Terrell, TX
- Norma's Cafe – Dallas, TX

"Texas Chicken Fried Steak Day is our favorite day at Norma's Cafe and we are so excited to share it with guests, friends and other restaurants that love it as much as we do," said Ed Murph, owner of Norma's Cafe. "Our chicken fried steak has been an award-winning staple for more than 60 years, and we cannot think of a better way to celebrate this holiday than to give back to our community.”

In recognition of the holiday, each guest that dines at any of the three Norma’s Cafe locations has the opportunity to participate in a raffle for free chicken fried steak for a year. Each location will announce one winner on Oct. 27.

The Texas Chicken Fried Steak Day bus tour was proudly sponsored by Norma’s Cafe, Ben E Keith, Freedman Meats, HCK2 Partners, Hill Country Dairy, Shepherd Equipment, Synergy Enterprises, Summit Wealth Partners, AMS Waypoint, Auto Chlor, Avalon Synergy, Clorax, Community Coffee, Kilgore Law, Surplus Lighting, Swingle Collins & Associates, Tyson Foods and the Tipping Family.
