(DALLAS) – Norma's Cafe, the original Dallas dining icon, is creating more than 80 jobs for the City of Dallas as it begins hiring for the new location on Park Lane in Caruth Plaza. The 4,100 square-foot restaurant will be accepting applications for front- and back-of-house staff.

“Norma’s Cafe has an exciting June coming up, with the new location opening in Caruth Plaza and the celebration of our 60th anniversary, and we’re excited to add more than 80 people to our extended family,” said Ed Murph, owner of Norma's Cafe. “Much like our cafe locations in North Dallas, Frisco and the original in Oak Cliff’s Bishop Arts Area, we anticipate our new location in Dallas to be a great place to host business meetings, dine with friends and family, or stop in for the cafe’s famous chicken fried steak or Mile-High Pie.”

The expansion of Norma’s Cafe will create jobs for residents including servers, hostesses, food runners, bakers, cooks and cashiers. Previous restaurant experience, specifically with serving breakfast, is preferred. All applications need to be submitted in person at the Park Lane location and suitable applicants will be called back for interviews.

The new Norma’s Cafe location will be in Caruth Plaza, located at 9100 N. Central Expressway, Suite 151. Norma’s Cafe will be across the street from The Shops at Park Lane and across North Central Expressway from NorthPark Center.
