"Thanksgiving is such a special holiday to share with family and friends, and Norma's Cafe enjoys being a part of it by opening our doors to provide a home-cooked, holiday meal to those who do not have the means for themselves," said Ed Murph, owner of Norma's Cafe. "The past 28 years have been nothing short of special and we could not do it without our partners and volunteers who are committed to helping others."

Guests taking part in the Free Thanksgiving Dinner will be served a feast of holiday favorites, including turkey and dressing with giblet gravy and cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, English peas, salad, rolls, fruit and dessert. Norma's Cafe fed more than 7,500 people last year at the restaurant and through partnerships with local homeless shelters and houses of worship. This year, Norma's Cafe is happy to partner again with Tango Tab, a local food charity providing meals to people in need, and Travis Frederick of the Dallas Cowboys to bring the joy of Thanksgiving to even more North Texans.

This year's event is made possible in part by several generous sponsors, including Ben E. Keith, Classic Caps and Embroidery, Centennial Radiator Service, Community Coffee, Evan's Engraving, Freedman Meats, Hill Country Dairy, Mrs. Baird's, and Varidoc Printing.
